Naan Mudhalvan Programme Enhances Employability Skills of First-Year Students at SCAD Polytechnic College

On 13.02.2026, SCAD Polytechnic College successfully organized the Naan Mudhalvan programme for first-year students within the college campus. The session focused on developing Employability Skills, aiming to prepare students for future career opportunities and industry expectations.

The programme emphasized essential professional competencies such as communication skills, teamwork, problem-solving ability, leadership qualities, time management, and interview preparation techniques.

Students actively participated in interactive discussions and practical activities designed to improve their confidence and workplace readiness. The session also highlighted the importance of adaptability, positive attitude, and continuous learning in today's competitive job market.

Through this initiative, the institution reinforced its commitment to equipping students with industry-relevant skills alongside academic knowledge. The Naan Mudhalvan programme proved to be highly beneficial, motivating first-year students to focus on personality development and career planning from the beginning of their academic journey.
